Slithering Snakewich

Serve Information: 1 Snake Sandwich On A Plate

INGREDIENTS:

6 Slices of white bread
4 Slices of wholemeal bread
100g Spreadable cream cheese
1/2 Bunch chives
2 Tsp dried onion flakes
1 Cucumber
2 Slices of ham
1 Slice of cheese
2 Circles of roasted red capsicum
1 Kiwi fruit

EQUIPMENT:

Chopping board
Sharp knife
Spatulas
Bowl
2 x 5cm cookie cutters
Long platter
2 toothpicks

METHOD:

1. Set some chives aside and finely chop the remaining chives
2. Place the cream cheese, chopped chives and onion flakes in a bowl and mix
3. Cut each end off the cucumber and set aside. Slice the middle section of the cucumber into slices
4. Using the white bread, make two cream cheese and cucumber sandwiches and one ham and cream cheese sandwich
5. Using the wholemeal bread, make one cream cheese and cucumber sandwich and one cheese and cream cheese sandwich
6. Using the cookie cutters, cut out four rounds from each sandwich
7. Arrange the rounds in a snake shape on a long platter, alternating the flavours
8. Use the ends off the cucumber for the head and tail. Cut a mouth in the front of the snake's head
9. Cut the ham slice into a forked-tongue shape and insert in the mouth
10. To make eyes, use some cream cheese to stick the roasted capsicum on the cucumber
11. Cut the ends off the kiwi fruit
12. Use toothpicks to poke holes in the kiwi fruit skin and insert the chives in the holes and place on the plate next to the snake
